He died about twenty minutes afterward. He had been threatening suicide for a short time past, and it is supposed he took the chloroform with that intention.

FOREST PIRES. A Dangerous State of Affairs in Grain, Provisions, Cotton, Tobacco, Tur-Henry County.

(Special telegram to the Dispatch.) MARTINSVILLE, VA., April 16.-Forest fires are sweeping over portions of this county, destroying property and much valuable timber. On last night William Stuard lost his dwelling and everything he owned, including fifty dollars in money. His entire family, consisting of grown daughters and many young children, are without a shelter or a thread of clothing except their night garments.

C. T. Seay lost his house and everything he possessed. The fire was so violent he had to throw some of his children out of the window to save their lives.
